DIFERENTES REPRESENTACIONES DE SONIDOS EN LA SERIE

La tilde se pondrá en aquellas letras que deben pronunciarse con más fuerza: lion láion león Mother móder Madre	Los dos puntos (:) después de una vocal, indican alargar el sonido de la misma: door do:r puerta feet fi:t pies	En una sílaba fuerte, la "c" suena como "k": cat kat gato La "k", siempre suena como la "k" en español: kitchen kíitchen cocina
la doble "e", salvo excepciones, suena siempre como la "i", pero con sonido prolongado: bee bi: abeja green gri:n verde	la doble "o", suena: -unas veces como "u": food fúd comida -otras, como "o" (con sonido prolongado): Moon mo:n Luna	la "h", salvo algunas excepciones, suena como una "j" suave: house jáus casa horse járs caballo Excepción: hour auer hora
la combinación "sh", suena en inglés como cuando se hace callar a alguien (es más suave que el sonido de la "ch"): she shí ella shoe shú zapato	la combinación "th", tiene dos maneras de pronunciarse: -como "z" (sonido típico que tiene en España): Thanks zanks Gracias -como "d" interdental: They déi Ellos/Ellas	la "j", suena como la letra "y" en español: job yob empleo jump yómp saltar
Generalmente, las consonantes finales en inglés, suenan con fuerza (como las iniciales), no hay que pronunciarlas débilmente: Dad dad Papá o Papi elephant éléfant elefante	las palabras en inglés que empiezan con "s" seguidas de consonante, se pronuncian como la "s" (no anteponer la vocal "e"). spider spáider araña school skúl colegio/escuela	las palabras en inglés que terminan en consonante + vocal, dicha vocal no suena y la consonante se pronuncia con más fuerza: bottle ból botella
la "v", aunque en español normalmente no lo distinguimos de la "b" al pronunciarla, muchos idiomas sí lo hacen, por esta razón se debe pronunciar con su sonido real: tocando nuestro labio inferior con los dientes superiores.	la "w", cuando va seguida de vocal, se pronuncia como "u": work uórk trabajar Si la palabra comienza con "wr", se pronuncia como "r": write rait escribir	la "y", suena como la vocal "i" (no como "y", ni como "ch"): yes iés sí you iú tú yesterday iésterdei ayer

Red Riding Hood

Once upon a time a little girl called Red Riding Hood goes to visit her Grandma.

In the forest she meets the wolf.
"Where are you going, little girl?"
The wolf asked.

"To my Grandma's house, Mr. Wolf,"
She answered.

The wolf ran to Grandma's house and locked her in the wardrobe.

He wore Grandma's clothes and lay on her bed.

Caperucita Roja

Había una vez una pequeña niña llamada Caperucita Roja, que fue a visitar a su Abuelita. En el bosque conoció al lobo. "¿Dónde vas, pequeña niña?", le preguntó el lobo. "A casa de mi Abuelita, Señor Lobo", ella le contestó. El lobo corrió a la casa de la Abuelita y la encerró en el armario. Se vistió con la ropa de la Abuelita y se recostó en su cama.

Red Riding Hood arrives and says:
"What big eyes and ears you have Grandma!"

"All the better to see and hear you with", says the wolf.

"What big teeth you have Grandma!", says the little girl.

"All the better to eat you with",
growled the wolf.

Red Riding Hood scream and a woodcutter came running.

The wolf ran away and is never seen again.

*Caperucita Roja llegó y dijo: "¡Qué ojos
y orejas tan grandes tienes Abuelita!"
"Son para verte y oírte mejor", dijo el lobo. "¡Qué dientes tan grandes tienes Abuelita!", dijo la pequeña niña. "Son para comerte mejor", gruñó el lobo.
Caperucita Roja gritó y un leñador llegó corriendo. El lobo escapó y nunca se vio
de nuevo. Caperucita Roja abrazó a su Abuelita con alegría.*
